

Campus Involvement

Programs

- Activities Chairman has been charged with requiring all members to be in at least 2 campus organizations outside of FarmHouse by Spring Break 2002.
- Favorite Faculty Dinner. Brothers invite professors and administrators to the house for dinner to show appreciation and encourage interaction outside of classroom.
- Scholarship Banquet - University deans, vice presidents, and Greek advisors are invited to honor the academic accomplishments of the brothers.
- Coordinate two philanthropies throughout the year.

Communcation

- Vice President of Brotherhood, responsible for communicating all campus involvement opportunities to the brotherhood.
- Maintain a roster of member's campus involvement to inspire and encourage other members to become involved.
- Bulletin Board. The Vice President also maintains a bulletin board, posting information received from campus organizations. The board focuses on the areas of the Four-Fold, with opportunities related to each area posted as they are received.
- E-Mail List. The chapter e-mail list is often used to pass along announcements concerning campus activities and applications.
- To correspond with all sororities once each semester. Cards for holidays, flowers, personal ads in campus newspaper, serenades, football pairings butter-ups, cards for Founder's Day, trade dinners, group bible studies, morning newspapers delivered.

Campus Involvement

Campus Activities

- Diversity, essential his chapter takes an active role in many different aspects of the campus.
- Participation in various Greek activities.
- Homecoming competition.
- Greek Week.
- University wide event committees.
- Honor societies.
- Varieties.
- Intramural competitions
- Participate in other Greek philanthropies throughout the year.