

Social & Moral Development

Activities

- Held our traditional parties including: Milk & Cookies Date Party, Valentine's Day Date Party, Here Today...Gone to Maui, FarmHouse Semi-Formal Ski Trip, and Founder's Day.
- We hosted a cook out at the chapter house with the women of Chi Omega as an intramural co-recreational sports kick-off.
- We hosted a movie night at the chapter house with the women of Kappa Alpha Theta.
- Big brothers take their pledges out to sororities after a chapter meeting to find dates and get many accustomed to socializing with the ladies. It is cleverly called "Date Dash".
- Through the cooperation of our housemother, an extensive etiquette presentation was given at the beginning of each semester.
- Coffeehouse (late night) at the chapter house is an inexpensive way to promote alcohol-free fun with an open microphone, cards, board games, in-house putt-putt golf course, and other activities.
- Joint Bible studies with the women of Chi Omega and Zeta Tau Alpha.

Brotherhood Events

- Brotherhood only events such as Poker Tournaments, TTU Basketball & Football Games, Cotton Kings Hockey Games, Brotherhood Movie Nights, and "Eating Out" at least once a week.
- Ski trip over Christmas break
- Chapter serenaded sororities on many occasions including Christmas, Bid Day, and Function Bidding.
- Lock-In. The Saturday night before spring activation, 55 brothers gathered in the basement of FarmHouse to enjoy cards, movies, pool, video games, brotherhood and food.

Social & Moral Development

Types of Social Events:

- Formals- Spring formal was held in Nashville TN on the Mississippi Queen with a formal dinner and dancing afterwards
- Crawfish Boil
- Dinner Exchange
- Spur of the Moment
- Theme Parties. “Be My Idol”, “Wedding Party”, Saturday Night Live Party”.
- Tailgates
- Summer Lake Party.
- Casino Night.
- Parents’ weekends.
- Fall Barn Dance. Brothers and dates go to one of the brother’s houses for a bonfire, dancing and camping.
- Held Thanksgiving and Christmas meals in which friends of members were invited.