The scholarship selection committee comments included:

"It is invigorating to read these applications and learn about the outstanding young men in FarmHouse."

"These scholarship recipients are all standouts. It was a tough decision!"

"Wow. What a fine group of young leaders and scholars."

"I appreciate the opportunity to serve on the Scholarship Committee. It's interesting and something I enjoy doing. I was impressed by these candidates."

The Foundation would like to thank Roy Frederick (NE '63), Robert Lewis (KS '58), Randy Linville (KS '73), Jim Lodoen (ND '79), Doug Sims (IL '65) and Randy Weaver (OK '72) for serving as this year's selection committee.

Please note several other academic scholarship endowments through the FarmHouse Foundation are earmarked for members of specific chapters. Check with your chapter president, association, local Foundation Council or contact Foundation Executive Director Allison Rickels (800-722-1905 or allison@farmhouse.org) for more information regarding those scholarships which are locally selected and awarded. The 2012-2013 International level scholarships will be announced this fall and are due June 1, 2012. Again, congratulations to these outstanding FarmHouse scholars!

The FarmHouse Foundation is a 501(c)3 public educational foundation supporting the educational and leadership programs of the Fraternity as well as providing scholarships to individual members for academic achievement. FarmHouse International Fraternity is a men's international agriculturally-related fraternity founded in 1905 that seeks to build men intellectually, spiritually, socially, morally and physically.
