Chapter Goals

1. Programs that offer tips for success while in college.

Dr. Michael Vayda (Dean of the Dale Bumpers College of Food and Life Sciences) ate supper with the chapter and presented several tips and strategies about how to succeed in college. After the presentation, Dr. Vayda opened the floor for discussion about how to improve the Agriculture College at the University of Arkansas.

2. Programs with information on workforce success after college.

Kevin Kautzman, a human resources representative from JB Hunt, talked to the chapter about how to build a good resume, how to handle a job interview, and how to apply for employment at JB Hunt.

3. Useful and informative programs that have information for the whole Chapter.

From the chapter poll, we concluded the chapter wanted a workshop on self defense skills. So, Officer Sibley, of the University of Arkansas Police Department, presented to the chapter. Officer Sibley showed the men how to defend themselves and others from attackers using pressure points and hand to hand defense tactics.
